

Fundraising Compliance

The Courthouse Arts Centre, as a registered Irish charity, undertakes the practice of fundraising. We are fully committed to achieving the standards contained within the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising. We have considered the Statement and we believe we meet the standards it sets out. We commit to doing this by:

Maintaining good fundraising practice

Providing high levels of accountability and transparency to our donors and prospective donors from the public

Providing clarity and assurances to you about how we spend your money

We are fully committed to achieving and maintaining the standards contained within the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising developed by the Irish Charities Tax Reform Group (ICTR).

The Courthouse Arts Centre Donor Charter

We commit to being accountable and transparent so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the Courthouse Arts Centre.

Our pledge to donors is that we promise to treat all of our donors with respect, honesty and openness.

As a charity that relies on the generosity of the public, we promise to effectively apply your donations to us for their intended purposes.

We will also handle all donations and donation information with respect and with confidentiality.
